

Test name: camping

Question 1 of 20

Safety must be very important when camping, so we must learn proper handling of fire, first aid and sanitation.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 2 of 20

to start a basic fire, an "A" frame is best, with a teepee over top.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 3 of 20

there are 3 different types of burning materials which include tinder, kindling, and fuel.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 4 of 20

tinder can include shredded bark from a tree or dried grass and leaves.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 5 of 20

Kindling includes large logs.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 6 of 20

split logs are called tinder.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 7 of 20

to put out a fire we use the three "S" method, sprinkle scatter and shovel.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 8 of 20

when tying knots in rope, a "granny" knot is the same as a "square" knot.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 9 of 20

a square knot happens when you put left over right and right over left.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 10 of 20

a "bowline" includes a tree, a hole and a rabbit.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 11 of 20

storing food up off the ground or hanging in a tree will keep animals out of it. If we leave it out, it will attract unwanted critters.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 12 of 20

a Latrine is used for chopping wood.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 13 of 20

a shovel should be left at the latrine for sanitation.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 14 of 20

a menu and the cooking procedures must be planned out well in advance for a good camping trip.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 15 of 20

swinging an axe is fun and not dangerous at all. don't worry about people standing around, they should be on the look out.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 16 of 20

sharpening tools is not a big deal and is easy and safe if you just rush through and get it done.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 17 of 20

using the right tool can change the whole trip from frustrating to fun.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 18 of 20

first aid can most often include burns and cuts around the campsite so planning the right supplies is a must.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 19 of 20

having the right tent is not a big deal. it doesn't require planning or preparation.

- A) True
- B) False

Question 20 of 20

sleeping bags are only necessary for the winter and air mattresses are easy to patch while camping.

- A) True
- B) False