

Test name: Bubble soccer safety

Question 1 of 12

Bubble soccer can be very fun and very dangerous, someone could get paralyzed from a negligent referee who is not watching.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 2 of 12

straps inside are no big deal. if their head sticks out at top, just let them play.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 3 of 12

"Spearing" is a good way to get even.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 4 of 12

holding on to the handles inside is very important.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 5 of 12

running in anger and proving whose fastest is the object of the game.

- A) True
 B) False

Question 6 of 12

having a medical condition is your own private matter, it is not important to ask.

---

- A) True
 B) False

Question 7 of 12

keep your rings and phone on you at all times so you don't lose them. they can't hurt the bubble.

---

- A) True
 B) False

Question 8 of 12

a referee must blow the whistle and stop all play if someone is not safe.

---

- A) True
 B) False

Question 9 of 12

Ejecting a player is not the job of a referee and he has no right to be controlling.

---

- A) True
 B) False

Question 10 of 12

when someone is on the ground, jump on them over and over. we call that "ground and pound". it is awesome.

---

- A) True
 B) False

Question 11 of 12

hitting from behind is always safe, with no potential problems.

---

- A) True
- B) False

Question 12 of 12

Launching yourself is encouraged.

---

- A) True
- B) False